

National Bridal Market™ Chicago hosts "A Night at the DEBI's"

The National Bridal Market™ Chicago, which features top manufacturers of bridal, bridesmaids, mother of the bride, flower girl, accessory, prom, quinceañera and special occasion, returns October 2-5 to The Merchandise Mart.

The show features a host of complimentary amenities, special events, fashion shows, informative seminars and the industry hallmark, "A Night at the DEBI's," where the DEBI Hall of Fame will debut.

"The National Bridal Market Chicago has worked to maximize the buyers' experience," said Susan McCullough, senior vice president, apparel. "The Market has continued to be successful over the years because it has delivered what buyers want - special amenities, great industry events and the top special occasion lines - all in an easy-to-navigate atmosphere."

A Night at the DEBI's will include the introduction to the DEBI Hall of Fame. Twelve companies who have been leaders in the industry will be inducted at the event. The black-tie evening will feature cocktails, the Hall of Fame presentation, dinner and Broadway entertainment inspired by NINE.

For more information, visit www.nationalbridalmarket.com.